Janns, born about 1635, was probably a son of Thomas Janns of Over Penn, Staffs "gentleman" 1609-.... He studied at Cambridge where on 15 Apr 1651 he was admitted a pensioner at Emmanuel College. He claimed to have graduated B.A. but the degree is not officially recorded. On appointment as a stipendiary curate at Brewood he subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 20 Aug 1662 and the following day was ordained deacon and licensed as a preacher (both) by Lichfield. Here he resigned before 22 Oct 1662 when after presentation by Rebecca Parkes c1603-1673 by right as widow of Thomas Parkes of Willingsworth in Sedgley, Staffs Esquire c1596-1660 he was instituted vicar of Sedgley. In 1665 the vicarage was valued at £30 pa. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Sedgley constablewick and was assessed on 6 hearths. Still in office he died, aged about 62, and was buried here on 1 Mar 1696.7. His will made on 22 Feb 1696.7 was proved under Lichfield on 19 Jul 1697. His personality was valued at £221/14/0 and included "Books in his Study £100". Janns married (? on 22 Feb 1657 at Old Swinford, Worcs) to Elizabeth (?Milward) (d 1722) by whom he had 3 sons and 6 daughters. William Janns M.A. (Vicar of Sedgley, Staffs) 1666-1729 was his second son and succeeded him at Sedgley. He was bequeathed his father's books.
